Announcement: Newsletter Editor position is open

The position of the editor of La Plume is available. If you have a desire to be our next board member and newsletter editor, please apply in person at the October meeting, or by email to JPComan9@gmail.com. The responsibilities are to inform members of upcoming events and meetings, and to comb the vast amount of information available and distill it for our members.

Next Meeting: October 31

All meetings are open to the public. The South Regional Branch of the Lafayette Library, Auditorium. Address is 6101 Johnston St, Lafayette. Start time is 6:00 p.m. We usually go to 7:15, but we must end by 7:30.

We will have a Door Prize from the books that were donated by authors.

October Guest Speaker: Ed Gauthier

The honorable Mr. Edward Gauthier is our Guild secretary, and has published two novels. On October 31, he will speak on artist colonies. Ever wanted to get away and take time to just finish the last chapters of that unpublished novel? To complete those four poems? To finish your family's memoirs? This lecture will go over methods to get acceptance into a writer's colony and amaze you with how many writer's colonies are available for us writers. Dairy Hollow Writer's Colony in Eureka Springs, Arkansas will be featured, and will include pictures.

Looking Ahead: November Prompt "It's My Turn"

Category: Fiction

This is a fun competition for members. The prompt MUST APPEAR somewhere within the work, and entries must be no longer than 500 words. The author must be present, but may allow another to read the piece aloud. When the prompt category is poetry, both traditional and free verse poems are acceptable. All entries must be typed and double-spaced. The story or poem must have the word count, title, author's name, and date of the competition written at the top of the first page, and a paper copy of the winner and runner-up is to be handed in to the president after the judging. Contest participants are not allowed to enter the contest with works that are typed on iPhones or any other electronic devices.

Our November meeting is "Members read" month. Members may bring work that they have created and share with the attendees. It may be a work in progress or a completed work. Five minutes will be allotted for each reader. Singers and songwriters within the organization are invited to share their work as a cappella or acoustic numbers; however, there is a limit of one song per performer and the song must also be no longer than five minutes.

Looking Ahead: No meeting in December
